Amanda Zajac is an Associate with Griffin's Private Equity Group, focusing on primary fundraising and secondary advisory services. She offers relationship support to Private Equity Funds, Independent Sponsors and Institutional Limited Partners, such as pension funds, family offices, sovereign wealth funds, insurance companies, and endowment funds. Amanda also provides due diligence, market research, marketing materials generation, and financial reporting.

Prior to joining Griffin, Amanda served as an Associate at MK Venture Capital and Public Policy, a billion-dollar venture capital firm building and running companies to fund scalability programs and support crucial changes in public policy. In this role, she provided merger and acquisition advisory assistance to portfolio companies.
